

Union Hall is pleased to present Words for our Country, a new community-driven project that takes your words, quotes, stories, anecdotes (and whatever is on your mind!), and turns it into art.

This project is inspired by Union Hall's Poems for our Country exhibition held in November 2019, which asked artists to create a banner containing a slogan, message, or sentiment for the year to come. Nearly a year later, we turn to the greater community to express your hopes, frustrations and inspiration for 2020.

During these challenging and difficult times, Union Hall wants to know: what's on your mind? What do you want to share with the community? What are your Words for your Country right now?

Head to WordsForOurCountry.com today and make a submission, for the chance to have your words transformed into a work of art! Each contribution will help support Union Hall as we continue to advance opportunities for diverse, emerging artists, and create exciting cultural programming for the community of Denver.
